Yes, i'm a drummer

And this is my Diary. Well, sort of, because there are times when logs just don't make it till here. Anyways, this webpage is an effort to keep you updated on what i'm working on regarding drums and also a timeline to help me remember where i've been and my interests from day to day.

Yes, i'm a drummer but also teacher, synth freak, artist, friend, lover and son, that's why things here are personal, though at times it all may seem very technical. That's an advice to you while also a note for me, because the way i do things will probably not apply to many out there and won't necessarily make you/me the fastest, heaviest or even funkiest drummer, the activities recorded here are just a way of being.

Be very welcomed into this digital book, refer to Express rhythm to find further information on rhythms written with words or code, and click on About to check out my short bio and contact links. Have a pleasant day!

Diary

2023

November

Mo 06. Added Strudel to the Diary Section, first example wrote based on Funky Drummer, James Brown, Clyde Stubblefield on Drums. Link on how this was made at this entry on the Tidal Club Forum.

Oktober

Mi 04. Paraddidle Johnnie, accents on open Hi-Hat, Bars 1-24. 30 min

September

Mi 27. The Breakbeat Bible, E4: Two 16th Notes in a Row on the Kick, Beats, ex 1-12 with routine as follows. Continue with Ride Cymbal when using the Hi-Hat Pedal. A = eight notes, B = quarter notes, C = off-beat. 30 min

$$Beat*8 \xrightarrow{to} \frac{Beat}{HH\ pedal\ ostinato\ (ABC)} *4 \xrightarrow{to} \frac{Two\ Bar\ Break\ (Main\ Groove + Beat)}{HH\ pedal\ ostinato\ (CBA)} *4 \xrightarrow{to} Beat*4$$

Mo 25. Accents and Rebounds, Accented Eights, ex 15 on pad and orchestrated on Drums + Impro.

Do 14. Escritura, instalé el Plugin ABC_ImpExp para MuseScore. Hay algunos parámetros que pueden omitirse al transformar un ritmo a notación ABC, aquí una pequeña tabla.

to remove	to change
T: Title (?)	M: 4/4 -> M: C
L:1/4	V:1 perc nm="string" -> V:1 perc nm="string" style=x
K:none (after voices)	V:2 perc -> V:2 perc style=normal
I:percmap A A 43 normal (all similar)	adjust voices (rhythm)

Mi 13. The Breakbeat Bible, E5: Open Hi-Hat Notes, Eight Bar Phrase.

Fr 08. Little Sister, Queens Of The Stone Age, transcription with Maschine + Musescore.

Do 07. Escritura, creé el archivo musescore-midiExport.mxprj para transcribir canciones fácilmente usando Maschine y Musescore. Primero ejecuto el ritmo en Maschine o utilizo el secuenciador de pasos, después exporto y guardo el beat en MIDI. En Musescore importo el archivo MIDI, luego ingreso al menú Ver > Mezclador y cambio los canales a Set de percusión. Por último selecciono el pentagrama que incluye el Bombo y la Tarola e intercambio las voces 1 a 2 usando el menú Herramientas, para copiar y pegar encima las notas de Hi-Hat. Todo esto se logra fácilmente trasponiendo en Maschine: Bombo (-24), Tarola (-20), Hi-Hat Cerrado (-18), Tom Piso (-19), Tom Bajo (-15), Tom Medio (-13), Tom Alto (-12); otros platillos dejé sin mapear.

August

Di 15. Drum Techniques of Led Zeppelin, Black Dog, first lecture and Fill on Bar 32 practice.

Mi 09. Paradiddle Johnnie, Bars 1-24, Snare + accents on Jam Block.

Di 08. Little impro on The Breakbeat Bible, Breakbeat Transcriptions: Classic Breaks, Amen Brother @ 137 BPM. Transcript, from Rueben Spyker Reel.

Juli

Fr 28. Instrumentos Vendí mi atril de Hi-Hat, tenía el Gajate para tocar con clave, pero extraño mi pedal. He puesto otra configuración con el pedal FD-8 y un CY-5 que tenía guardados, por ahora me gusta.

Do 20. Rede, hablando con mi padre, le contaba que, aunque hoy día existen muchos tutoriales para aprender a tocar ciertos ritmos y/o técnicas, aún falta describir con mayor atención los detalles, tales como postura, inclinación del tambor, alturas, tensión, peso, logitud de los dedos y brazos, flexibilidad. Esto ya se lo había comentado antes, pero no recuerdo cuando, por eso es importante este diario.

Sa 15. Konzert, recital de Leipzig. Todo resultó en orden y puntual. La batería fue amplificada con un micrófono de lápiz como overhead y un micrófono diná-mico al bombo, Moongel en tarola, cobijas en bombo. Llegué media hora tarde, ensamblé la batería en 20 minutos con reacomodos.

Mo 11. The Art of Bop Drumming, Comp Example 2, lick 9 with tumbao, inverted doubles and clave.

So 09. The Breakbeat Bible, Funky Drummer @ 80-84, 6-8 Minute reps.

Sa 08. Paradiddle Johnnie, review till Bar 32, practice pad.

Mi 05. Gedanken, ¿Cómo nos acercamos a una canción?: Instrumentación, Pulso, Ritmo, Estructura, Interpretación.

Juni

Mo 26. The Art of Bop Drumming, Comp Example 2, licks 5 & 6, playing triplets as 16th notes in groups of inverted doubles e & and placing 8ths on the last 16th a. Steady tumbao on bass drum.

Di 20. The Art of Bop Drumming, some exercises over Rumba Clave.

So 18. Concert, Vi a Horacio “El Negro” Hernández en Jazzatlán. El timbalero tocó desde mi perspectiva en momentos muy fuerte y con frases forzadas.

Do 15. Can't Take My Eyes Off You, transcription till chorus.

Sa 17. Paradiddle Johnnie, Bars 1-24 on practice pad, @ 70 BPM.

Di 13. Coding, practice of Jungle beats with Tidalcycles for the upcoming Algorave event.

Do 08. Paradiddle Johnnie, Bars 1-16, shuffle feel, various orchestrations (toms, hi-hat, snare).

So 04. The Breakbeat Bible, E6: Syncopated Accents on the Snare, ex 1-4 with inverted doubles. Improv. 40 min

Fr 02. Paradiddle Johnnie, Bars 1-16, shuffle feel, accents reinforced on Bass-drum, sticks and brushes.

Mai

Mo 29. The All American Drummer, Solo 14 @ 50 and 60 BPM. Take Me Out, Franz Ferdinand, weiter bearbeitet, decided to use ligatures for open Hi-Hats as it is more explicit and + markings can't be placed over silences.

Do 25. The Breakbeat Bible, E6 Syncopated Accents on the Snare, Beats 1-13 on lap.

So 21. Drum Techniques of Led Zeppelin, Stairway to Heaven, Bar 50 @ 60 BPM, then lecture till Bar 50 @ 88 BPM. Drumathics publication of Gunga Din, The Libertines. Drumlogs, website update, chapter 2, Express rhythm.

Do 18. Drum Techniques of Led Zeppelin, Stairway to Heaven, Bar 50 @ 60, 65, 70, 75, 80, 85, 90 BPM. s*3 e y s*3 . 2 e s*3 a . 3 s*3 y a . 4 s ta y s ta.

Mo 15. The Breakbeat Bible, E3 Two 16th Notes in a Row on the Snare: 8-Bar Phrase, one Bar, two Bars and four Bar combinations within the same structure @ 98 BPM. 30 min Also Bar 2 & 5 with Swing Pattern @ 98 BPM. 5 min

Sa 13. The Breakbeat Bible, E1 Single 16th Note Subdivisions in the Snare: Beats (p.11), E2 Single 16th-Note Subdivisions on the Kick: Beats (p.18), E3 Two 16th Notes in a Row in the Snare: Beats (p.34), E4 Two 16th Notes in a Row on the Kick: Beats (p.43). 30 min

Sa 06. Don't Speak, No Doubt, This Love, Maroon 5, active listening, main grooves.

Fr 05. Inverted Doubles, bassdrum displacements (#e, e+, +a, a#) over doubles on Hi-Hat and Snare (cross-stick). 15 min. Compromise on structure, constant mechanics.

Do 04. Drum Techniques of Led Zeppelin, Stairway to Heaven, first verse lecture without metronome.

Di 01. Linear Jazz Drumming, Cymbal Pattern 7, ex 1-8 as lecture, 4 repetitions per phrase.

April

Apr 18. Percufest 2023, clinics from Joel Enriquez, Rick Latham, Elohim Corona; versatility, time feel (balance), gear decisions.

Apr 17. Rudiments, Paradiddle (x4) + Double Paradiddle (x4) + Triple Paradiddle (x4) + Double Paradiddle (x4) + Paradiddle (x4, end on 4th beat and begin again with this hand); taken from Aquiles Priester @ Percufest 2023.

Express rhythm

The count

Though there are many counting systems for drums, the one i prefer and teach is the 1 e & a, where such a grouping means four sixteenth notes on beat 1. Beats are easy to follow in this manner, because they always carry the number we are at, for example 2 e & a, is the same grouping as before but on beat 2.

From here one can find other subdivisions by just looking with attention, # are notes on beat, & are notes off-beat, e and a are sixteenth notes between beat and off-beat. It gets easier if one draws a table:

#	e	+	a
2	e	&	a
3	e	&	a
4	e	&	a

There are many books and videos that cover the topic, so my explanation here should suffice the understanding of the diary notes.

Mini-notation

Not even close in popularity to the 1 e & a count, this form comes from my experience with livecoding using TidalCycles. It is used to write patterns of notes, samples and parameters for cycling sequences. Though it's vocabulary is broader than other systems, i normally just use some of its rules when taking notes. Here is a table:

Symbol	Description
~	Create a rest
[]	Create a pattern grouping
.	Shorthand for pattern grouping
*	Repeat a pattern
!	Replicate a pattern

There is way more to it, so please visit the mini-notation reference, to learn more about this notation system.

Express rhythm

Now that these foundations are clear, let's express a rhythm mixing both counting / patterning systems:

1 e ~!2 . 2 & . ~!3 a . 4 ~ & a

For the first beat, i know there is a sound on beat 1 and e but then 2 sixteenth note silences. After the dot, we advance to second quarter of the rhythm, there is sound on beat 2 and its off-beat, here i don't need to express silence, hence there are only two elements, their subdivision is on eight notes. We advance to the third quarter of the rhythm, where only the last sixteenth note has sound. Lastly i will play a drum on beat 4, its off-beat and the last sixteenth note again.

Notice that this example is not specific on which drum/s should be played, and that's perfect because one can then orchestrate in various surfaces at will. If i wanted to be more specific, then probably the letters k, s and x would be placed instead to refer to bass drum or kick, snare drum and cymbal respectively.
